68 (68) Henry Aylsworth (4)(Philip 3, Philip 2, Arthur 1) married Mary Huntley, probably in the United States, though perhaps in Ernesttown, and settled on the east shore of Picton Bay, where he died shortly afterwards.
Children:
208 1 Lucretia (5), born March 24, 1791, married John Durling; dwelt in Hallowell.
209 2 Deborah (5), married Abraham Warren; dwelt in Hallowell.
Mary (Huntley) afterwards married Daniel Pettit, and dwelt in Prince Edward County. Her father died in Ernesttown.

208 Lucretia Aylsworth (5)(Henry 4, Philip 3, Philip 2, Arthur 1). The following extracts are taken from a printed obituary, published shortly after her decease:
"The subject of this brief memoir, whose maiden name was Aylsworth, was born in Hallowell (near Picton) on the 24th day of March, 1791, and died at the residence of her eldest son, Hiram Darling, Esq., of Percy, on the 8th day of January, 1871, in the 79th year of her age. She was the eldest child of Henry and Mary Aylsworth, both of whom are reported to have been members of the first Methodist society formed in Hallowell, and although deprived of a father's protection and care at an early period of her life, she was never left destitute of either kind friends or a comfortable home. - - - When about twenty years of age she was married to Mr. John Darling, her now bereaved husband, and became the mother of ten children, three of whom preceded her to the home of the blest.* * *"
She was reared in the family of Corey Spencer, of Hallowell, Prince Edward County, Ont., where she and her husband dwelt until late in life. She was buried in the cemetery at Warkworth.
Their children as reported by Wallis were:
Mary (6), married ------ Lawrence.
Delilah (6), married John Alvin.
Hiram (6), married, 1st, ----- Weeks; 2nd, ----- Pettit.
Eliza Ann (6), married ----- Barringer.
John Henry (6), married Susan White.
Deborah (6), married Joseph Reynolds, a preacher.
Adeline (6), married Luke Devlin.
Alpheus (6), married James Howe.

209 Deborah (5)(Henry 4, Philip 3, Philip 2, Arthur 1) Aylsworth, was [illegible] reared in the family of Stephen Conger, of Hallowell, married Abraham Warren, and dwelt near Picton.
"Died at her residence in the township of Hallowell, on the 19th inst. (March, 1862) Deborah, relict of the late Abraham Warren, aged 67 years and 6 months. (From published memoir)
As reported by Miss Wallis, of Picton, their children were:
John (6), died at about 15 years of age.
Polly (6), married Thomas Osborn.
Henry (6), married Amy Southard.
Nancy (6), died in her young womanhood.
Betsey (6), married Amos Walch.
Susan (6), married John Orser.
Metcalf (6), married Rachel Orser.
Matilda (6), married Archibald Hough.
